FOREWORD

In Publishing THE SYLVAN of 1962, we have tried to capture events and heartwarming memories that are dear to us. The Senior Class wishes to thank our sponsor, parents, student body, and the advertisers for their cooperation, for without it THE SYLVAN would have been impossible.

THE HISTORY OF OUR SCHOOL

Woodland-Olney High School received its name from the consolidation of two schools: Olney, started about 1890 and Woodland, established in 1875.

Olney School was located in George. It was owned and controlled by the Quakers until 1910, when the county bought the building and took over the operation of the school.

The Woodland-Olney School was first owned by stockholders. Early in its history it was the best school in this part of the state. Boys came from several adjoining counties to study at Woodland.

In 1916 a movement was begun for consolidation and two were joined. A beautiful three-story brick building was erected on the present site.

As the years passed, Potecasi School and the Menola School were added to Woodland-Olney. The present building pictured above replaced the three-story one. In 1955 a modern building was added to the school plant to house home economics and agriculture rooms and the cafeteria.

Now consolidation is being considered to combine five county high schools, and Woodland-Olney will become a grammar school.

DEDICATION

Mr. White, who has been with us at Woodland-Olney for eighteen years, has been a great influence in the lives of our students. His untiring efforts, his democratic principles, and his interest in student activities has made him loved by all those with whom he has worked. The students will ever be indebted to him for his guidance and helpfulness.

The Senior Class, in publishing this edition of the Sylvan, will be ever mindful of the leadership of our sponsor and teacher, Miss Lassiter. She has been a true friend and advisor and we looked to her for guidance and help which she has rendered willingly.

We, therefore, dedicate this, our 1962 annual, to these two for all they have meant to us in the past and for what they have given us to carry on in our life's work.

ADMINISTRATION

Mr. B. L. White, Principal

Mr. White has been Principal of Woodland-Olney School for eighteen years. During this time he has in addition to his administrative duties, taught two or more math classes each year.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

The Class of 1962, being as sound in mind and body as usual, do make and declare this to be our last will and testament, rendering null and avoid any bequest previously made.

To our school we bequeath our heart-felt affection and gratitude for our years of training, and we pledge our support of its needs in years to come.

To our teachers we bequeath our sympathy, our admiration, and our gratitude for their help and guidance.

To Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen we leave a warning: "It is later than you think." Keep plugging everyday so that when you receive your diploma, it will not be too heavy for you to carry.

Certain members of the Class of 1962, having concern for specific individuals do make the following bequests:

To Margaret Burgwyn, Mamie Baker leaves her happy disposition, excellence in citizenship, and home economics skills in complete confidence that they will be in good hands.

To Alice Baker, Nancy Futrell leaves her way with a typewriter and her calm dignity that Alice is well on the way of having already.

To Jenny Lynn Parker, Sarah Ann Joyner leaves her ability to keep up with her school work and have enough time left to drive around the countryside.

To Clara Futrell, Libby Lewter, Millie Carter, and Jean Powell, Susan Jessup, Jeanne Timberlake, Judy Futrell, and Joan Sumner bequeath that special something that produces "sparklers" around Christmas time.

To Walter Beale, Colburn Busch leaves his love of the erudite along with the ability to have at all times a definite knowledge of the whereabouts of his belongings.

To Bob Harvin, Johnny Outland regretfully relinquishes his crooning ability, that shows itself early in the morning and between classes in a "George Burns" tenor.

To Joe Griffin, Coy Futrell and Wayne Smith leave their quiet manner and their ability to blush with the slightest provocation.

To Tyrone Hardison, Lin Holoman, and Jimmy Turner, Edward Bryant, Douglas Blowe, and Winfred Bradley leave their skill with the school buses and their little black books of names of students who will sweep the buses in the morning.

To Morris Shear, Thomas Bell leaves his ability to enjoy a good laugh so that Morris will enjoy study hall and homeroom periods as Thomas has.

To Larry Jenkins, Sidney Joyner bequeaths his dancing ability to help him to become a "man-about-town" like Sidney.

To Billy Williams, Charles Lane leaves his interest in keeping up with what is going on in all the county school and in one in particular.

To Greer Futrell, Johnny Barnes leaves his capacity for chewing gum but takes with him the secret of his source of supply.

To this document we set our hand and seal on this, the first day of February nineteen hundred sixty-two.

THE CLASS OF 1962

CLASS PROPHECY

Introduction to the Class Prophecy

The shaggy haired professor stared at me through thick lenses and then at the small stack of personal cards lying on the work table in front of him. He reached for them automatically, swiveled a half turn in his desk chair, dropped them into the yawning slot of an electronic brain, leaned back and waited.

Assorted giggles and whistles accompanied by a veritable rainbow of lights, issued from the complicated machine. When the din had ceased, the professor scouted toward the drawer in which eighteen cards had fallen.

"Here," he announced, "are cards that reveal the 1975 status of each member of the Class of 1962. Be very careful how you rise the information."

I thanked the professor, but awed by the portentous knowledge in my possession, I hesitated to disclose it. The SYLVAN, however, seemed the proper place in which to release the information. Here is an exact copy of each card:

SIDNEY JOYNER replaces The Fred Astaire Hour with his successful T.V. Program, SIDNEY DANCES AGAIN.
CHARLES LANE has given up covering caskets and now is making a fortune selling them. He's a successful Undertaker.
WINFRED BRADLEY, having been inspired by his research theme in English IV, now resides on the moon.
COY FUTRELL having discovered oil in Kay's back yard is now the successful owner of Futrell and Sons refining Company.
JOHNNY BARNES having graduated from Barber School with top honors, invented the new "Barnyard Look."
SARAH ANN JOYNER who excelled greatly in her high-school basketball career is now Physical Education instructor at Conway High.
SUSAN JESSUP, due to her background in pig care during her senior year has made millions in the swine industry.
DOUGLAS BLOWE, having defended our country for many years in the National Guard, has now retired to his country estate "Blowe Moor."
COLBURN BUSCH has just returned from his trip abroad to resume his duties as Professor of English Literature at Yale University.
JEAN TIMBERLAKE is now employed as head Secretary at Barnes, Barnes, Barnes and Barnes "Hair Care" Salon.
THOMAS BELL has finally finished internship and is now working to perfect "do it yourself" surgery.
MAMIE BAKER due to her charming personality is now operating the Baker Charm School for young women.
NANCY ANN FUTRELL, due to her secretarial abilities, is now private secretary to the President of the United States.
WAYNE SMITH, having quit the Dry Cleaning business, is now owner of a large furniture store in Rich Square, N. C.
JOHNNY OUTLAND has increased the Northampton Casket Company into a world-wide organization.
JOAN SUMNER, the slim, sleek senior, has achieved great success in the modeling business. She is now top model and part-time designer for Vogue Fashions.
JUDY FUTRELL now happily married and living in Suffolk, spends most of her time by the pool behind her large estate.
EDWARD BRYANT has just made his first million dollars in the construction of the "Bryant Car."

TO OUR ADVERTISERS

The Senior Class of Woodland-Olney School would like to say, "Thank You, Advertisers." Without your co-operation it would be impossible to have published our 1962 Sylvan. You have been most generous in buying advertising space and very pleasant in all our dealings with you.

We recommend these business firms and urge you to visit them in the future.
